“CLIMATE CHANGE/CRISES/CREATIVITY” CONFERENCE

February 22, 2019, 9:00am–5:00pm
Northeastern University
Raytheon Amphitheater

9am Breakfast and Registration

9:15am Welcome Address
Dean Uta Poiger and Professor Elizabeth Maddock Dillon

9:30 to 10:15am Lightning Talks, Panel One
Shalanda H. Baker: Law; Public Policy and Urban Affairs
Daniel O’Brien: Public Policy and Urban Affairs; Criminology and Criminal Justice; Co-Director, Boston Area Research Initiative
Dietmar Offenhuber: Art + Design; Public Policy and Urban Affairs
Jennie Stephens: Public Policy and Urban Affairs;
   Dean’s Professor of Sustainability Science and Policy
John Wihbey: Journalism

10:20 to 11:15am Lightning Talks, Panel Two
Brian Helmuth: Marine and Environmental Sciences
Laura Kuhl: Public Policy and Urban Affairs;
   International Affairs
Kyla Van Maanen: Global Resilience Institute
Sara Wylie: Sociology; Health Science
11:30am to 12:45pm Peter Burton Hanson Memorial Lecture
Bethany Wiggin, University of Pennsylvania
“Climate Change and Pedagogy: Experiential and Embodied Learning from the Academy and Beyond”

1:00 to 2:45pm Lunch and Working Session
Led by the Sustainability and Resilience Advisory Team at Northeastern

3:00 to 5:00pm Artist Presentations
Carolina Aragón, Assistant Professor of Landscape Architecture, UMass Amherst
Geoffrey Hudson, Composer, creator of “A Passion for the Planet”
Sarah Kanouse, Art + Design, Northeastern University

Guest Wi-Fi Information
eduroam is the easiest way to log into Northeastern wifi. Otherwise, use “NUwave-guest” and select this conference. The code is “conf713430”

Follow this event on Twitter
#ClimateChangeCreativity

All gender bathroom located on 4th floor

Co-sponsored by the NULab for Texts, Maps, and Networks; the Department of English; the School of Public Policy and Urban Affairs; the Humanities Center; and the Global Resilience Institute web.northeastern.edu/nulab/event/climate-change-crisis-creativity/